M. WITTE TO BE RETIRED.
Veteran Russian Statesman to Be Relieved of His Duties.

St. Petersburg, March 18.—There is good authority for the statement that M. Witte's recommendation for the abolition of the committee of ministers has been accepted by Emperor Nicholas and that the veteran statesman will soon be relieved of his duties, which he is reported to find both onerous and distasteful.

A circumstantial report is afloat that Interior Minister Bouligan's commission for formulating the reforms promised in the imperial manifesto of March 3, will meet on Oct. 1 and that elections for the projected representative consultative body will be held in January, but while this perhaps is the determination now, developments in the intervening months and the deliberations of the commission itself are likely to have an important effect on both date and the final composition of the new governmental organism.

SUSPENSION OF CONFLICT IN THE FAR EAST PREDICTED AT ST. PETERSBURG.

TO NEGOTIATE FOR PEACE

RUSSIAN REPRESENTATIVES DESIRE AN OPPORTUNITY TO DISCUSS THE TERMS.

St. Petersburg, March 18.—According to a well informed personage, a suspension of hostilities may be expected within a month to permit consultation between representatives of the Russian nation regarding terms of peace.

ANXIETY IS INTENSE

RUSSIANS AT HOME FEAR A FURTHER DISASTER TO THEIR ARMY IN MANCHURIA.

St. Petersburg, March 18.—Decided anxiety is felt here regarding the fate of the army in Manchuria under its new commander, no news of military developments for the past two days having been received. The only dispatches from the front are the brief announcements Friday that General Linevitch had assumed command and that General Kuropatkin was departing for St. Petersburg and the Associated Press Changtufo dispatch filed the morning of March 16 and written at the station of Kalyuan, which was then held by the Russians. In this correspondent's opinion, no pause in the Japanese advance is probable for some time. The Russians are losing heavily in the rear guard actions and Japanese columns are reported to be pushing northward as fast as possible to complete the envelopment of the Russian forces.

General Linevitch, however, will have a considerable accession of fresh troops in a day or two, the Fourth European corps being now at Harbin and departing southward. Military officials here declare that there are now 268,000 men at General Linevitch's disposal in Manchuria and it is believed that this force will be sufficient to cause the Japanese to exercise greater caution in their pursuit.

Sympathize With Kuropatkin.

Although General Kuropatkin's downfall was inevitable from the military standpoint, nevertheless it arouses sympathy in circles familiar with the long campaign that has been waged against him by the general staff. General Sakharoff was his open enemy and General Dragomiroff his most severe critic, and many of his own subordinates were jealous and grudgingly obedient. Many epigrams about General Kuropatkin's shortcomings are being attributed to General Dragomiroff, and the supercession of the former at such a critical moment is directly attributed to Dragomiroff's advice. Emperor Nicholas is now giving ear to the veteran strategist in military matters.

General Linevitch is distinctly a fine officer, with a long record as a fighter. He is almost as cordially disliked by the general staff as is his predecessor, and there also is bad blood between Kuropatkin and Linevitch dating from a personal quarrel in the days when Kuropatkin was commander of the Transbaikal army, which led Linevitch to demand satisfaction. Kuropatkin assumed the position that he could not fight an officer of inferior rank. The succession of this officer will naturally increase General Kuropatkin's discomfiture.

Prince Khilkoff, who will leave St. Petersburg soon to prepare the Siberian railway for forwarding the new levies which have been determined upon, said that there had been no breakdown as yet, and that he hoped as soon as navigation opened it would be possible to transport one-fourth of the outgoing soldiers by the rivers and relieve the railroad to that extent.

SYMPATHY FOR KUROPATKIN.

British Public and Press Sorry for the Deposed General.

London, March 18.—No further news regarding the situation in Manchuria or of the whereabouts of Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron has reached London.

The greatest sympathy is expressed by the British press and public for General Kuropatkin, and there is strong criticism for the curt manner of his dismissal, without a word of thanks for past services.

General Kuropatkin is considered to have been to a large extent a victim throughout the campaign of the interference of former Viceroy Alexieff, and the grand ducal party, and to

The coroner's jury held an inquest over the murder of C. H. Schindeldecker during the morning and returned a verdict to the effect that the evidence points to the guilt of Edward Gottschalk and Joseph Hartmann.

TO CUT OFF THE RUSSIANS.

Several Japanese Columns Moving
North of Changtufu.

Changtufu, March 18.—The rear guard action is continuing almost uninterrupted.

Soldiers wounded in the last fight to the number of 1,700 were despatched north from Tie pass on March 15.

The morning of March 15 the Japanese made their principal attack on the Russian left and in the evening attacked the right also.

It is reported that several columns of Japanese infantry, with cavalry, are moving north a considerable distance west of the railway with the intention of cutting the Russians from their base. It seems evident that the advance movement of the Japanese has continued for a long time, and perhaps uninterruptedly. The Russians are offering a stubborn resistance in their withdrawal, though not attempting to hold a position which is naturally open to a turning movement.

The wagon trains are gradually being brought into order but many carts are missing, including those carrying private supplies of food.

ST. PATRICK'S ENTERTAINMENT

A Full House and a Good Entertainment—Speech Highly Spoken By Hearers

Yesterday was Irishman's day and every loyal son of Erin and many others "wore the green." The observance of the day culminated with the entertainment given at the opera house last evening. The principal event of the evening was the address by Hon. J. A. Peterson, of Minneapolis, formerly assistant county attorney of Hennepin county. The selection of a Scandinavian to deliver the eulogy on the patron saint of the Emerald Isles seemed peculiar on the face, but events proved the wisdom of Father Lynch's judgment. Mr. Peterson is conversant with his subject and the address made a very good impression on those who heard it, and they were many, as the house was crowded. Besides the address the following musical and literary program was presented. Every number was well rendered and received much applause: Grand Irish Medley Selection, Vocal and Instrumental.....

Song.....Kathleen Graham

Piano Solo.....Daisy Cawley

Song.....Joseph Murphy

Duet.....Georgia Horn and Jennie Mycen

Selection.....Graham's Orchestra

Cornet Solo, selected.....Prof. Graham

Recitation—"Erin's Flag".....Mayne Bolin

Violin Solo, selected.....Prof. Lensrud

Selection.....Orchestra

The entertainment netted St. Francis church a fine sum and proved anew the executive ability of Father Lynch, who had the matter in charge.

ST. PATRICK'S ENTERTAINMENT

A Full House and a Good Entertainment—Speech Highly Spoken by Hearers

Yesterday was Irishman's day and every loyal son of Erin and many others "wore the green." The observance of the day culminated with the entertainment given at the opera house last evening. The principal event of the evening was the address by Hon. J. A. Peterson, of Minneapolis, formerly assistant county attorney of Hennepin county. The selection of a Scandinavian to deliver the eulogy on the patron saint of the Emerald Isles seemed peculiar on the face, but events proved the wisdom of Father Lynch's judgment. Mr. Peterson is conversant with his subject and the address made a very good impression on those who heard it, and they were many, as the house was crowded. Besides the address the following musical and literary program was presented. Every number was well rendered and received much applause:

Judge McClenahan Files New Findings in Case Stitt & Howe vs.

Rat Portage Lumber Co

FINDINGS SAME AS BEFORE

Attorneys Here in Another Important Case Before Judge McClenahan

The new findings in the case of Stitt & Howe vs. the Rat Portage Lumber Co., of Rat Portage, Ontario, were filed a few days ago and the attorneys in the case will be here Monday to make up a case for a motion for a new trial and to argue the motion. The old findings were signed by the judge under a misunderstanding as to the defendant's attorneys having had the findings submitted to them before signing, and in order to give them a chance to be heard Judge McClenahan set aside the findings and listened to the attorneys. The new findings are practically the same as the first and give Stitt & Howe the right to redeem the land in question upon the payment of nearly $67,000.

Whether the motion to be argued is granted or not the case will be appealed at once to the supreme court, without doubt. The record in the case is very voluminous, making over 1600 pages of typewriting.

Another important case is up before the judge this afternoon, being the case of Robertson vs. The Village of Grand Rapids. The case was one brought by the contractor to recover a balance of about $2,500 on the contract price of an electric light plant put in for the village a few years ago. The village refused to pay, claiming the plant was not up to contract. The case was tried last June, the court directing verdict for the plaintiff. Attorneys E. S. Durwent, of St. Paul, for the plaintiff, and Victor J. Welch, of Minneapolis, for the defendant, appear before Judge McClenahan this afternoon to settle a case for a motion for a new trial and to argue the motion.

SOME BASEBALL MATTERS

According to the St. Cloud Journal-Press the Citizens there are not responding too liberally.

In arguing that the St. Cloud fans "dig up" in support of the baseball team, the St. Cloud Journal-Press has the following to say:

"According to the statements of W. J. Price, manager of the Fargo baseball team for the past three years, last year Fargo's share of receipts of all games for the season, counting in $2,000 which she had to start with, was $7,200. Mind you, she had $7,200 money on which to run her team—and yet—at the close of the season she was some couple of thousand dollars in the hole. Why was this—well it was mainly because she paid a bunch of old "has-beens" salaries that for the entire team aggregated $2,400 monthly. Then in addition to this $2,000 a month she had the current expenses to pay. Now if Fargo had owned a team which she did not pay to exceed $800 a month, the management would have come out some $4,000 or $5,000 to the good. It has been figured out, and the figures are admittedly reliable, that it cost Northern League teams about $1,000 for mileage during the season and about $1,500 for hotel bills and incidentals when away from home. At home there was no expense in maintaining the team excepting the salary money."

The Meat Question

EDITORS OF THE DISPATCH:

In your issue of the 17th I see that the butchers of the City of Brainerd are complaining of the wagons on the streets, and of different stores handling meats through the winter. I wish to say that

I believe it is the duty of every store to handle meats when they buy the meats of the farmers of Crow Wing county, which I have done, and if the complaining butchers had bought the farmers meats it would have left the money at home, and everybody would have gotten a little benefit of the money.

If there is no one that will buy the stock from the farmer, or see that there are buyers to buy the stock, what can be expected? Why, the farmers are compelled to put wagons on. The stores are under obligations to the farmers to a certain extent we think, and should handle their meats. And if it is just for the butchers to handle groceries and flour and feed, why is it not right for the grocery stores to handle meats?

We pay just as much taxes as they do. We will leave it to the citizens of Brainerd to judge. We see that the prices have been a benefit to the consumers and the producers get what a citizen of the county should have, and that is an encouragement.

Thanking you for your valuable space I remain,

Yours,

J. F. DYKEMAN.

The Meat Question

EDITORS OF THE DISPATCH:

In your issue of the 17th I see that the butchers of the City of Brainerd are complaining of the wagons on the streets, and of different stores handling meats through the winter. I wish to say that I believe it is the duty of every store to handle meats when they buy the meats of the farmers of Crow Wing county, which I have done, and if the complaining butchers had bought the farmers' meats it would have left the money at home, and everybody would have gotten a little benefit of the money.

If there is no one that will buy the stock from the farmer, or see that there are buyers to buy the stock, what can be expected? Why, the farmers are compelled to put wagons on. The stores are under obligations to the farmers to a certain extent we think, and should handle their meats. And if it is just for the butchers to handle groceries and flour and feed, why is it not right for the grocery stores to handle meats? We pay just as much taxes as they do. We will leave it to the citizens of Brainerd to judge. We see that the prices have been a benefit to the consumers and the producers get what a citizen of the county should have, and that is an encouragement.

Thanking you for your valuable space I remain,

Yours,

J. F. DYKEMAN.

NEW FINDINGS

ARE FILED

Judge McClenahan Files New Findings in Case Stitt & Howe vs. Rat Portage Lum' Co.

FINDINGS SAME AS BEFORE

Attorneys Here in Another Important Case Before Judge McClenahan

The new findings in the case of Stitt & Howe vs. the Rat Portage Lumber Co., of Rat Portage, Ontario, were filed a few days ago and the attorneys in the case will be here Monday to make up a case for a motion for a new trial and to argue the motion. The old findings were signed by the judge under a misunderstanding as to the defendant's attorneys having had the findings submitted to them before signing, and in order to give them a chance to be heard Judge McClenahan set aside the findings and listened to the attorneys. The new findings are practically the same as the first and give Stitt & Howe the right to redeem the land in question upon the payment of nearly $67,000.

Whether the motion to be argued is granted or not the case will be appealed at once to the supreme court, without doubt. The record in the case is very voluminous, making over 1600 pages of typewriting.

Another important case is up before the judge this afternoon, being the case of Robertson vs. The Village of Grand Rapids. The case was one brought by the contractor to recover a balance of about $2,500 on the contract price of an electric light plant put in for the village a few years ago. The village refused to pay, claiming the plant was not up to contract. The case was tried last June, the court directing a verdict for the plaintiff. Attorneys E. S. Durwent, of St. Paul, for the plaintiff, and Victor J. Welch, of Minneapolis, for the defendant, appear before Judge McClenahan this afternoon to settle a case for a motion for a new trial and to argue the motion.

SOME BASEBALL MATTERS

According to the St. Cloud Journal-Press the Citizens there are not responding too liberally.

In arguing that the St. Cloud fans "dig up" in support of the baseball team, the St. Cloud Journal-Press has the following to say:

"According to the statements of W. J. Price, manager of the Fargo baseball team for the past three years, last year Fargo's share of receipts of all games for the season, counting in $2,000 which she had to start with, was $7,200. Mind you, she had $7,200 money on which to run her team—and yet—at the close of the season she was some couple of thousand of dollars in the hole. Why was this—well it was mainly because she paid a bunch of old "has-beens" salaries that for the entire team aggregated $2,400 monthly. Then in addition to this $2,000 a month she had the current expenses to pay. Now if Fargo had owned a team which she did not pay to exceed $800 a month, the management would have come out some $4,000 or $5,000 to the good. It has been figured out, and the figures are admittedly reliable, that it cost Northern League teams about $1,000 for mileage during the season and about $1,500 for hotel bills and incidentals when away from home. At home there was no expense in maintaining the team excepting the salary money."

W. H. Roberts, colored; Ludwig G. Larson and Fred A. Blix, and Michael Brown, colored. Search warrants were issued and a large quantity of goods recovered.

VISITS NEW YORK CITY

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT GIVEN AN ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION BY BIG CROWDS.

DINES WITH SONS OF ERIN

MAKES AN ADDRESS AT THE BANQUET OF THE FRIENDLY SONS OF ST. PATRICK.

New York, March 18.—President Roosevelt during the day paid his first visit to New York city since his inauguration and received a most enthusiastic reception from the crowds which had gathered along the streets through which he passed during the afternoon and evening. The president was accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, his daughter, Miss Ethel, his physician, Dr. Stokes, Secretary Loeb and two secret service men. The uneventful trip from Washington was made in six hours, the president's private car being attached to the Pennsylvania express.

At the Jersey City station a crowd had collected who cheered the president as he walked, surrounded by a cordon of police, through the station to a carriage in which he, Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Ethel were driven on the ferry boat. A similar scene was enacted as the Manhattan terminal, from which the presidential carriage was driven to the residence of Mrs. James Roosevelt, the president's aunt, in West Fifty-seventh street. All along the route the president was cheered, and he repeatedly recognized the salute by lifting his hat. At 3 o'clock the president left his aunt's residence for that of Henry Parish, Jr., in East Fifty-sixth street to attend the marriage of his niece, Miss Eleanor Roosevelt, to her cousin, Franklin D. Roosevelt.

On the way he met the big St. Patrick's day parade which was stopped, the participants and the thousands who crowded the sidewalks, wildly cheering Mr. Roosevelt as he went through and passed up Park avenue. He seemed to greatly enjoy the typical Irish welcome.

The wedding was enhanced by the presence of the chief magistrate, who led the bride to the altar and gave her away.

Attends the Annual Dinner.

The president left the Parish residence at 5 o'clock to return to the home of Mrs. James Roosevelt. After a short stay there the president again emerged and was driven through cheering crowds to Delmonico's, where he attended the 121st annual dinner of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick.

He was accorded a flattering ovation by more than 600 members of the society and its guests and responded in a notable address.

The Friendly Sons of St. Patrick entertained Washington in 1782, as the general in chief of the colonial armies. Roosevelt is the first president, as such, the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick have entertained, although both Arthur and Cleveland, as ex-presidents, were guests of the society.

President Roosevelt's set speech was in the nature of a review of what the Irish people had accomplished in America. He aroused much enthusiasm.

He also created much applause by toasting the baby of one of the club members, who could not attend the banquet on account of the happy event in his home occurring on St. Patrick's day.

Soon after the conclusion of his address President Roosevelt left for the banquet of the Sons of the American Revolution at the Hotel Astor, where he made a brief address.

In his speech President Roosevelt dwelt particularly upon increasing the powers of the navy.

President Roosevelt left the hotel Astor at 11:25 o'clock and was driven directly to the Twenty-third street station of the Pennsylvania railroad, going thence by boat to Jersey City, whence he left at 12:32 a.m. for Washington.

FIGHT AGAINST MORMONISM.

National Congress of Mothers to Carry on Campaign.

Washington, March 18.—The National Congress of Mothers, which has been in session for a week, adjourned to meet in March, 1906, at Los Angeles. At a meeting of the board of managers Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver was appointed chairman of the committee on juvenile court and probation, Mrs. Florence Kelly of New York chairman of the committee on child labor, Mrs. Max West national press correspondent, Miss Jane A. Stewart of Philadelphia chairman of the national press committee, and Mrs. Hiram H. Birney of Philadelphia chairman of the committee on book lists for mothers and children.

It was decided to call on every state congress of mothers and every mothers' club in America to take up the fight against Mormonism.

Good Roads Movement.

Chicago, March 18.—The Chicago and Northwestern Railroad company has started a "good roads" movement. On April 10 the company will send out a special "good roads" train through Iowa, from which expert advice will be given upon the subject by means of lectures and literature.

GENERAL HAWLEY IS DEAD. Former Senator From Connecticut Dies in Washington.

Washington, March 18.—General John R. Hawley, for nearly twenty-four years United States senator from Connecticut, died early in the morning at his residence in this city, seventy-eight years of age. Death came peacefully after a stupor lasting with but slight interruptions since Wednesday afternoon. At his bedside when the end came were Mrs. Hawley, her three daughters and Major Hooks, for a long time messenger to the committee on military affairs of the senate.

General Hawley's active career in the senate came to an end in December, 1902, when failing health compelled him to relinquish his legislative work.

Congress at its last session paid General Hawley a tribute by placing him on the retired list as a brigadier general. He and General Osterhaus were the only American citizens ever placed on the retired list of the regular army who had not served in the regular army.

FLOUR ORDERS FROM JAPAN.

Minneapolis Milling Companies Receive Big Contracts.

Minneapolis, March 18.—Heavy flour orders from Japan continue to pour in on Minneapolis milling companies. One of the big companies Thursday received an order for 20,000 sacks, and a second order Friday for the same number, both consignments clearable from the Pacific coast in April and May.

Japan's business this week with one firm has amounted to over 60,000 sacks of flour, and other companies report a proportionate amount of business.

DRASTIC ANTI-CIGARETTE BILL.

Passed by Both Houses of the Wisconsin Legislature.

Madison, Wis., March 18.—A drastic anti-cigarette bill which previously passed the assembly was passed by the senate during the day. It makes unlawful the sale, gift or importation into Wisconsin of cigarettes or cigarette materials. In a spirited debate which preceded the ballot the tobacco trust was charged with being the sole objectors to the bill.

PEABODY STEPS OUT

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR M'DONALD SWORN IN AS GOVERNOR OF COLORADO.

Denver, Colo., March 18.—Shortly before 5 p.m. Lieutenant Governor Jesse F. McDonald was sworn in as governor of Colorado. Shortly after 5 o'clock the previous day Governor Adams was ousted and Governor Peabody installed by the general assembly. Thus in a space of less than twenty-four hours Colorado had three governors.

The bargain made by leaders of the opposing Republican faction to take away the governor's chair from Adams and give it to McDonald, permitting Peabody to hold it one day, was fulfilled to the letter.

In fulfillment of the agreement which he made before the general assembly decided the gubernatorial contest in his favor, Governor James H. Peabody resigned the office in which he was inaugurated Thursday. His resignation, of which W. S. Boynton of Colorado Springs had been custodian since Wednesday, when it was written, was filed in the office of secretary of state at 4:20 p.m. James Cowie, secretary of state, immediately certified Governor Peabody's resignation and Lieutenant Governor McDonald was then sworn in as governor by Chief Justice Gabert. There was no further ceremony.

Weary of the Worry.

Governor Peabody transacted practically no business of state while in the office of governor. He received many callers who urged him not to resign and also many messages of the same import by telegraph and telephone. To all these he replied that he did not care to hold the chair. He said that he was tired of the worry and excitement of his contest and wished to go back to his bank in Canyon City. Half a dozen members of the national guard patrolled the corridors about the executive chamber during the day as a guard for Governor Peabody.

Lieutenant Governor McDonald reluctantly takes the chair which Governor Peabody resigns after forcing Governor Adams out. The lieutenant governor has taken no part in the bitter fight over the governorship, which has been waged ever since the election on Nov. 8. He absolutely refused to aid his friends in the legislature to have him made governor and as presiding officer in the joint assembly he made several rulings against the movement in his behalf.

Senator Arthur Cornforth, president pro tempore of the senate, becomes acting lieutenant governor.

WOMAN PROBABLY MURDERED.

Corpse Found in Bloody Run Creek at Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, March 18.—The body of a woman, presumably the victim of a murder, was found in Bloody Run Creek during the day. A knife wound over the heart was the evident cause of death. The corpse had probably been in the water for several weeks and decomposition was so far advanced as to render identification difficult. The body is apparently that of a woman of twenty-two years.

St. Louis, March 18.—Marry Meyers, a newsboy, was the hero of an affray on Washington avenue at night in which Antonio Santon, formerly collector with the World's Fair Argentine commission, was shot dead by Antonio Clemente. After the shooting an angry crowd quickly gathered about Clemente and threatened him. Meyers suddenly sprang up from behind, seized a revolver from Clemente's hand and dared the crowd to advance. In this way the newsboy protected the murderer until the police arrived.

The Medicine That Cures.

RENO, OKLA., May 11, 1905.

Wine of Cardui absolutely does cure sick women. I consider it the most valuable medicine, and it is the cheapest cure any sick woman can use, as it takes as a rule, only a few bottles to effect a complete and lasting cure. It cures all diseases of the womb, such as inflammation and ulceration, painful, profuse or scanty menstruation and it is a most valuable adjunct to use during the gestative period, insuring easy childbirth and speedy recovery.

It should have a place in every home as it is a true friend to wife, mother and maiden and I most heartily recommend it.

VISITS NEW YORK CITY

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT GIVEN AN ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION BY BIG CROWDS.

DINES WITH SONS OF ERIN

MAKES AN ADDRESS AT THE BANQUET OF THE FRIENDLY SONS OF ST. PATRICK.

New York, March 18.—President Roosevelt during the day paid his first visit to New York city since his inauguration and received a most enthusiastic reception from the crowds which had gathered along the streets through which he passed during the afternoon and evening. The president was accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, his daughter, Miss Ethel, his physician, Dr. Stokes, Secretary Loeb and two secret service men. The uneventful trip from Washington was made in six hours, the president's private car being attached to the Pennsylvania express.

At the Jersey City station a crowd had collected who cheered the president as he walked, surrounded by a cordon of police, through the station to a carriage in which he, Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Ethel were driven on the ferry boat. A similar scene was enacted as the Manhattan terminal, from which the presidential carriage was driven to the residence of Mrs. James Roosevelt, the president's aunt, in West Fifty-seventh street. All along the route the president was cheered, and he repeatedly recognized the salute by lifting his hat. At 3 o'clock the president left his aunt's residence for that of Henry Parish, Jr., in East Fifty-sixth street to attend the marriage of his niece, Miss Eleanor Roosevelt, to her cousin, Franklin D. Roosevelt.

On the way he met the big St. Patrick's day parade which was stopped, the participants and the thousands who crowded the sidewalks, wildly cheering Mr. Roosevelt as he went through and passed up Park avenue. He seemed to greatly enjoy the typical Irish welcome.

The wedding was enhanced by the presence of the chief magistrate, who led the bride to the altar and gave her away.

Attends the Annual Dinner.

The president left the Parish residence at 5 o'clock to return to the home of Mrs. James Roosevelt. After a short stay there the president again emerged and was driven through cheering crowds to Delmonico's, where he attended the 121st annual dinner of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick.

He was accorded a flattering ovation by more than 600 members of the society and its guests and responded in a notable address.

The Friendly Sons of St. Patrick entertained Washington in 1782, as the general in chief of the colonial armies. Roosevelt is the first president, as such, the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick have entertained, although both Arthur and Cleveland, as ex-presidents, were guests of the society.

President Roosevelt's set speech was in the nature of a review of what the Irish people had accomplished in America. He aroused much enthusiasm.

He also created much applause by toasting the baby of one of the club members, who could not attend the banquet on account of the happy event in his home occurring on St. Patrick's day.

Soon after the conclusion of his address President Roosevelt left for the banquet of the Sons of the American Revolution at the Hotel Astor, where he made a brief address.

In his speech President Roosevelt dwelt particularly upon increasing the powers of the navy.

President Roosevelt left the hotel Astor at 11:25 o'clock and was driven directly to the Twenty-third street station of the Pennsylvania railroad, going thence by boat to Jersey City, whence he left at 12:32 a.m. for Washington.

FIGHT AGAINST MORMONISM.

National Congress of Mothers to Carry on Campaign.

Washington, March 18.—The National Congress of Mothers, which has been in session for a week, adjourned to meet in March, 1906, at Los Angeles. At a meeting of the board of managers Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver was appointed chairman of the committee on juvenile court and probation. Mrs. Florence Kelly of New York chairman of the committee on child labor. Mrs. Max West national press correspondent, Miss Jane A. Stewart of Philadelphia chairman of the national press committee, and Mrs. Hiram H. Birney of Philadelphia chairman of the committee on book lists for mothers and children.

It was decided to call on every state congress of mothers and every mothers' club in America to take up the fight against Mormonism.

GENERAL HAWLEY IS DEAD. Former Senator From Connecticut Dies in Washington.

Washington, March 18.—General Joseph R. Hawley, for nearly twenty-four years United States senator from Connecticut, died early in the morning at his residence in this city, seventy-eight years of age. Death came peacefully after a stupor lasting with but slight interruptions since Wednesday afternoon. At his bedside when the end came were Mrs. Hawley, her three daughters and Major Hooks, for a long time messenger to the committee on military affairs of the senate.

General Hawley's active career in the senate came to an end in December, 1902, when failing health compelled him to relinquish his legislative work.

Congress at its last session paid General Hawley a tribute by placing him on the retired list as a brigadier general. He and General Osterhous were the only American citizens ever placed on the retired list of the regular army who had not served in the regular army.

FLOUR ORDERS FROM JAPAN.

Minneapolis Milling Companies Receive Big Contracts.

Minneapolis, March 18.—Heavy flour orders from Japan continue to pour in on Minneapolis milling companies. One of the big companies Thursday received an order for 20,000 sacks, and a second order Friday for the same number, both consignments clearable from the Pacific coast in April and May.

Japan's business this week with one firm has amounted to over 60,000 sacks of flour, and other companies report a proportionate amount of business.

DRASTIC ANTI-CIGARETTE BILL.

Passed by Both Houses of the Wisconsin Legislature.

Madison, Wis., March 18.—A drastic anti-cigarette bill which previously passed the assembly was passed by the senate during the day. It makes unlawful the sale, gift or importation into Wisconsin of cigarettes or cigarette materials. In a spirited debate which preceded the ballot the tobacco trust was charged with being the sole objectors to the bill.

PEABODY STEPS OUT

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR M'DONALD SWORN IN AS GOVERNOR OF COLORADO.

Denver, Colo., March 18.—Shortly before 5 p.m. Lieutenant Governor Jesse F. McDonald was sworn in as governor of Colorado. Shortly after 5 o'clock the previous day Governor Adams was ousted and Governor Peabody installed by the general assembly. Thus in a space of less than twenty-four hours Colorado had three governors.

The bargain made by leaders of the opposing Republican faction to take away the governor's chair from Adams and give it to McDonald, permitting Peabody to hold it one day, was fulfilled to the letter.

In fulfillment of the agreement which he made before the general assembly decided the gubernatorial contest in his favor, Governor James H. Peabody resigned the office in which he was inaugurated Thursday. His resignation, of which W. S. Boynton of Colorado Springs had been custodian since Wednesday, when it was written, was filed in the office of secretary of state at 4:20 p.m. James Cowie, secretary of state, immediately certified Governor Peabody's resignation and Lieutenant Governor McDonald was then sworn in as governor by Chief Justice Gabert. There was no further ceremony.

Weary of the Worry.

Governor Peabody transacted practically no business of state while in the office of governor. He received many callers who urged him not to resign and also many messages of the same import by telegraph and telephone. To all these he replied that he did not care to hold the chair. He said that he was tired of the worry and excitement of his contest and wished to go back to his home in Canyon City. Half a dozen members of the national guard patrolled the corridors about the executive chamber during the day as a guard for Governor Peabody.

Lieutenant Governor McDonald reluctantly takes the chair which Governor Peabody resigns after forcing Governor Adams out. The lieutenant governor has taken no part in the bitter fight over the governorship, which has been waged ever since the election on Nov. 8. He absolutely refused to aid his friends in the legislature to have him made governor and as presiding officer in the joint assembly he made several rulings against the movement in his behalf.

Senator Arthur Cornforth, president pro tempore of the senate, becomes acting lieutenant governor.

After the shooting an angry crowd quickly gathered about Cimento and threatened him. Meyers suddenly sprang up from behind, seized a revolver from Cimento's hand and dared the crowd to advance.
